Student Agreement (Must be signed)

- Community Bible Institute and Seminary is a Baptist College. All students should understand that Baptist doctrine; Baptist distinctive and Baptist polity will be taught. Students who cannot accept this have no place at Community Bible Institute and Seminary.
- Community Bible Institute and Seminary admits male or female of any race, color, national and ethnic origin to all privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at this college. The pastoral program is limited to men because of the Biblical qualifications of the Pastor.
- Students must be born again Christians.
- Students are expected to read the Bible and pray daily, win souls, tithe to their local church, and participate in their missions' program. Community Bible Institute and Seminary students who do not come from a church within driving distance of the college are expected to become active at Community Baptist Church.
- Students are expected to participate in all special events, which take place during the school year.
- Students must cheerfully abide by the separate, disciplined lifestyle standards of the college.
- Students should understand that attendance at Community Bible Institute and Seminary is a privilege and not a right. This privilege may be forfeited if the student does not conform to the standards and regulations of the college. If in the opinion of the Administration a student does not conform, they may be asked to withdraw.
- The King James Bible will be the basis for all classroom teaching, chapel messages and student assignments. Students that cannot accept this have no place at the college.
- I have read the above Student Agreement and agree to cooperate fully with the standards and guidelines of Community Bible Institute and Seminary.
